FOREWORD

ONCE again another class has graduated, but with that graduation will the memories of our four years at Marple-Newtown High School fade or remain with us? It is with that thought in mind that we are issuing "Memories of 1938."

To the friends and advertisers who have helped us keep our cherished thoughts and happy associations intact, we give our everlasting thanks.

DEDICATION

WE, THE members of the Class of 1958, gratefully dedicate this issue of "Memories" to Miss Helen E. Yeingst.

Words cannot express our appreciation for your friendship and helpful suggestions during our high school days.

For your work with the faculty and with us in making the activities of our school more successful, we thank you.

MEMORIES

In pensive thought I trace the years,
Recount the struggles, doubts, and fears,
The pains, the griefs, the sad mistakes
That mortal man forever makes . . .
These still remain:

—Reigner.

The joy to work, that sense of pride
In humble of toil that seeks to guide
The steps of youth their place to find
In useful service to mankind.

—Reigner.

A MESSAGE

YOU are now on the eve of completing a twelve years' journey through school, the main objective of which has been to learn how to serve. This is a difficult lesson for some to master. Many persons have a well-developed instinct of self-preservation which tends to influence them to get all they can for themselves and promotes selfishness. The fact is that this type of person thinks that learning to serve means learning to serve oneself. This is a very poor ideal.

The better point of view shows us that service to others is the perfect ideal. Although at first glance it may seem curious, it is a fact that in the long run this type of service will pay the doer far larger dividends. Think back through your school days and you will be impressed with the fact that the members of your class who have gained the greatest amount of your respect and affection are those who have done most for others and the least for themselves. As your career lengthens out into the future you will discover that this fact will apply just as truly to your after-school life.

Go forth from the Marple-Newtown High School, then, determined to serve, but primarily to serve others, and a greater amount of success, material, moral and spiritual, will be yours.

Your sincere friend,

JAY W. WORRALL, Supervising Principal.

CLASSES

CLAIRE BROGAN

November 29, 1919 Broggie Philadelphia, Pa.

COMMERCIAL

AMBITION: Stenographer.
MOTTO: "We pass for what we are."

Claire is undoubtedly among the most modern girls of the class. Her poise, humor, and manner of dress give her an attractive personality. She is always "up" on all the modern dances and is known to be quite giddy at times. She must have a lot of boyfriends at home about whom we have never heard. Her "come-hither" smile makes her so well liked that she will surely make a charming secretary to someone.

YEAR BOOK Staff, '38; Basketball, '34.

WILLIAM CLEMENTS

August 20, 1919 Bill Charlottesville, Va.

GENERAL

AMBITION: Pharmacist.
MOTTO: "Live and learn to serve."

Is it "Bill's" Southern drawl or his ability to slay them that makes him so popular with the women? His popularity with the women is not his only asset, however, for his good humor has made him popular with all his classmates, and his all-'round athletic ability has brought us many victories. May you be a successful soda jerker, "Willie!"

Football, '34, Letterman, '36, '37; Basketball, '34, '36, Letterman, '37, '38; Baseball, '34; Operetta, '36; Play, '36.

MARIE S. DILWORTH

February 14, 1920 Dilly County Tyrone, Ireland

GENERAL

AMBITION: Nurse.
MOTTO: "There's a little bit of good in every little devil."

"Dilly" is the best worker in our class. She reminds us of "Elmer, the door-to-door salesman." Whenever there are tickets to sell or donations to be collected, Marie takes the cake. "Dilly" is characterized by her attitude of a "go-getter." If she carries this into the future, there is nothing but success before her.

Declamation Contest, '35; Orchestra, '34, '35, '36, '37; Operetta, '35, '36, '37, '38; Track, '35, '36; Prom Committee, '37; Dance Committee, '38; Alternate Cheerleader, '36; Property Committee for Play, '37; Chorus, '35, '36, '37; Perfect Attendance, '34, '35; YEAR BOOK Staff, '38.

JOAN M. DOUGLAS

April 13, 1920 Skipper Wayne, Pa.

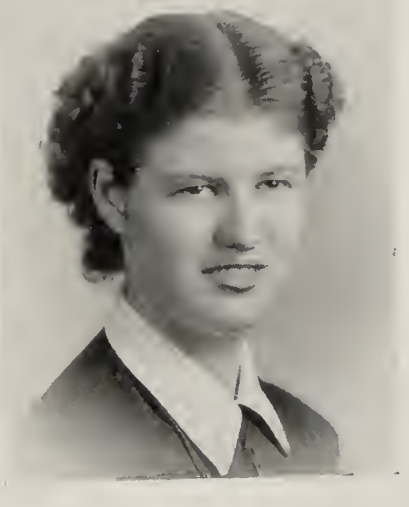
GENERAL

AMBITION: Nurse.
MOTTO: "I go everywhere, I see everything, and I never have any fun."

Joan, our efficient Editor-in-Chief, came to us from Barnegat last year. Since then she has done very much to help our class. As a basketball player and trackman she is unexcelled. Her good nature and friendly ways have won her a place in everyone's heart, for she is always willing to help whenever any difficulties arise.

Basketball Letterman, '37, Captain, '38; Track, '37, '38; Athletic Council, '37; Junior Guard of Honor, '37; Manager Christmas Card Sales, '38; Editor-in-Chief YEAR BOOK, '38.



NORMA LORETTA GRIFFIN

April 21, 1921 — Norm — Chester, Pa.

COMMERCIAL

AMBITION: News Reporter.
MOTTO: "He who sitteth on a tack shall rise."

Though Norma is the baby of the class she lacks nothing of wit, humor, or personality. This small child's burning ambition is to sign her name at the bottom of an article in one of our leading newspapers. Here's luck to you, Norma, and we know you'll make the grade—if Hollywood doesn't get hold of you first for your clever imitations of Garbo and Martha Raye.

Perfect Attendance, '35, '37; Track, '37; First Prize, Art, '37; Alternate Cheerleader, '38; Advertising Committee, '38; YEAR BOOK Staff, '38.

ANNA C. GUSTAVS

August 23, 1919 — Gussie — West Philadelphia, Pa.

GENERAL

AMBITION: Secretary in a dancing studio.
MOTTO: "The sooner the start, the quicker the finish."

"Gussie" is the terpsichorean artist of the Senior Class. She is responsible for teaching us how to do the "Big Apple." "Gussie" devotes every Tuesday and Saturday night to her dancing, but she still finds time to be an honor roll student. We sincerely wish her luck in her chosen profession, and we know she will "truck" her way to success.

Basketball, '35; Perfect Attendance, '35; Declamation Contest, '36; Operetta, '35; Property Committee for Play, '37; Guard of Honor, '37; Business Manager of Chicken Supper, '38.

ELMER RANCK HANCOCK

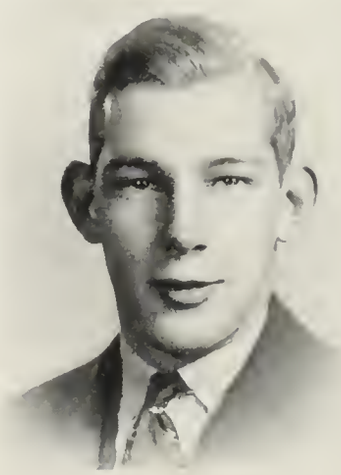
August 8, 1920 — Pittsburgh, Pa.

ACADEMIC

AMBITION: Civil Engineer.
MOTTO: "If you can't take part in a sport, well, be one anyway."

Elmer, one of the most active members of the class, is one of our two academic students. He has taken part in all athletics during his four years of high school. We're certain that such an all-'round training should prove an asset to him in college circles.

Football, '34, Letterman, '35, '36, '37; Basketball, '35, Letterman, '35, '36, '37, '38; All-Suburban League 4 Guard, '37; Second Team Guard, '38; Baseball, '35, '36, Letterman, '37, '38; Co-captain, '38; Perfect Attendance, '35, '37; Vice-President, '37, '38; Publicity Committee, '38; YEAR BOOK Staff, '38.



FRANCES HARTIN

July 12, 1920 — Fran — Edgemont, Pa.

COMMERCIAL

AMBITION: Interior Decorator.
MOTTO: "Laugh and the world laughs with you."

Although "Fran" took the Commercial Course in high school, we think that her ability lies elsewhere. Whether or not she will become an Interior Decorator or make Home Economics her vocation, it is not for us to say; but we feel sure that she will make a success of anything she undertakes.

Assistant Editor, YEAR BOOK, '38; Associate Editor Mar-News, '37; Prom Committee, '37; Ticket Committee, '38; Chorus, '34, '35, '36, '37; Operetta, '35, '36, '37, '38; Captain, Orange Team, '35; Track '35, '36, '37, '38.

LYLE H. HILL

May 6, 1920 Hill Staunton, Ill.

GENERAL

AMBITION: Accountant.
MOTTO: "Live, love, and learn."

Lyle, the best all-'round athlete of the class, has not only won the admiration of all athletic-minded people but also of his classmates. Our class would have been greatly handicapped had it not been for his helpful suggestions and willingness to do things. We know his friendly feeling toward everyone will win him many friends in the future.

Football, '34, '35, Letterman, '36, '37; Basketball Letterman, '35, '36, '37, '38, Captain, '37, '38; Baseball Letterman, '35, '36, '37, '38; All-Suburban Center, '38; Class President, '35; Junior Guard of Honor, '37; President Athletic Council, '38; Winner Color Day, '37; YEAR BOOK Staff, '38.

DOROTHY LEE KONDAS

July 9, 1920 Ushie Philadelphia, Pa.

COMMERCIAL

AMBITION: Hairdresser.
MOTTO: "Self-confidence is the keynote to success."

Here is one person who believes in variety. If variety is the spice of life, "Dot" should travel far in this world. (Marriage doesn't count!) They say good things come in pairs so when you see "Lover," "Dot" is around somewhere. As a basketball guard she's among the best.

Operetta, '36, '37, '38; Chorus, '36, '37, '38; Orchestra, 33, '34, '35, '36, '37, '38; Orchestra Committee, '38; Solo Violinist, '37, '38; Declamation Contest, '37; Perfect Attendance, 7 years; Lions Essay Award, '37; Lions Garden Club Award, '37; Junior Guard of Honor, '37; Basketball, '36, '37, '38; Letter Award, '36, '38; Track, '35, '36, '37, '38; Glee Club, '38; Cheerleader '37, '38; YEAR BOOK Staff, '38; Gold Typing Award, '38.

MARY ELIZABETH LONG

December 31, 1919 Longie Newtown Square, Pa.

COMMERCIAL

AMBITION: Hairdresser.
MOTTO: "To make friends, be one."

Mary is one of the most pleasant girls in the Senior Class. She always has a ready smile and something interesting to tell everyone. Mary's motto holds true as she certainly is a friend to all. Mary wants to be a hairdresser, so we hope she gives a lot of marcels and finger-waves. Here's luck to you, Mary.

Perfect Attendance, '37; Track, '37.

MARGUERITE E. MACINTYRE

September 24, 1919 Peggy Philadelphia, Pa.

GENERAL

AMBITION: Pianist in a Swing Band.
MOTTO: "Each time in life comes but once."

Even though "Peggy" despises experimenting in the Chemistry lab, she is really an expert when it comes to experimenting with "Peoples'" heart. Her ability for tunefully tickling the piano keys will help her achieve her ambition unless she decides to say, "I do" instead. However, we wish her the greatest success in whatever profession she may follow.

Operetta, '34, '35, '36, '37, '38; Cheerleader, '37, '38; Class Secretary, '35, '37; Decoration Committee, '38; Track, '35, '36; Junior Guard of Honor, '37; Accompanist, '38; YEAR BOOK Staff, '38.

DOROTHY JEAN MATLACK

November 1, 1920 — Jake — Malvern, Pa.

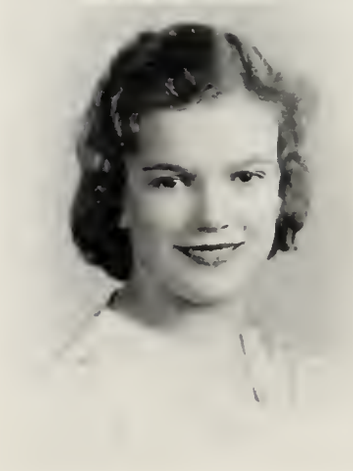
COMMERCIAL

AMBITION: Private Secretary.
MOTTO: "Have few friends, but have those few well-chosen."

Dorothy's charming personality and pleasant disposition have won her many friends during her four years in high school. As our secretary, she has taken care of class affairs quite capably. Dorothy's accomplishments in the Commercial Course have shown us that she will surely succeed in the business world. She doesn't care much for the boys, but that doesn't prevent them from dating her. Marple-Newtown will certainly miss her.

Operetta, '35, '36, '38; Chorus, '36, '37; Track, '36; Perfect Attendance, '34, '35, '36; Secretary, '36, '38; Junior Guard of Honor, '37; Play, '38; YEAR BOOK Staff, '38.



ESTHER BRINTON MILLS

December 25, 1919 — Lady — Philadelphia, Pa.

COMMERCIAL

AMBITION: Social Secretary.
MOTTO: "Ah, but a man's reach should exceed his grasp or what's a heaven for?"

Esther is one of the smallest girls in the Senior Class and also one of the peppiest. Her intelligence to do anything and take part in everything makes her very popular with us and a loyal M-N'er. Her constant chirping about "Dicky" only adds to her charm.

Operetta, '34, '35, '36, '38; Chorus, '34, '35, '36, '37; Play, '37; Alternate Cheerleader, '37, '38; Captain of Orange Team, '36; Glee Club, '38; Advertising Committee, '38; Junior Guard of Honor, '37; YEAR BOOK Staff, '38.

MARY EDITH NEAL

May 14, 1920 — Edie — West Chester, Pa.

GENERAL

AMBITION: Buyer for Dress Shop.
MOTTO: "On the violin of life we play the chords of success."

"Edie" has been one of the best and most willing workers in our class. Her attractive personality has made her tops with everyone, especially a certain person with whom she is often see riding in a Plymouth. Having won many art prizes, she is also gifted with musical abilities. If she follows up her musical career, she undoubtedly will become a second Rubinoff.

Basketball, '35; Operetta, '37; Orchestra, '37, '38; Art Editor, YEAR BOOK, '38; Pep Song, '37.

HAROLD JAMES NIEMEYER

July 4, 1920 — Nie — Boothwyn, Pa.

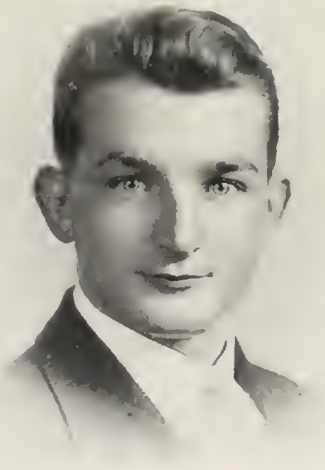
GENERAL

AMBITION: Building Contractor.
MOTTO: "The man who never makes a mistake is the man who never does anything."

On the morning of July 4, 1920, a blushing, barefoot boy was born to the Niemeyer household. He decided to educate himself at Marple-Newtown, changed his mind and entered Upper Darby, but couldn't resist the temptation, and came back to good old M.-N. to get his sheepskin. "Nie" has become a popular member of the Senior Class and has taken part in many of our activities. We wish him all the success in the world in his construction career.

Cross-Country, '37; Track, '36, '37, '38; Basketball, '35, '36, '38; Baseball, '36, '37, Numeral, '38; Izack Walton Club.



GEORGE PARKER

November 20, 1919 Parker Upper Darby, Pa.

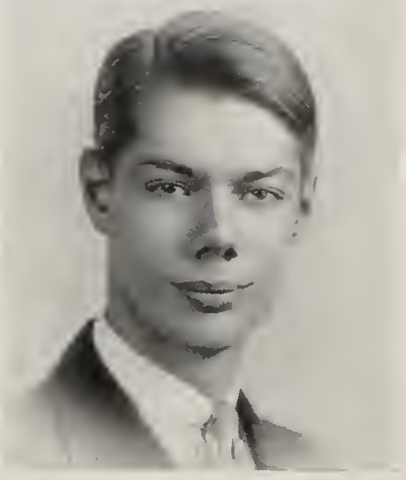
GENERAL

AMBITION: Accountant.
MOTTO: "Never turn back."

One can always see George, accompanied by a fair Sophomore, arriving at school each morning at one minute to nine. Despite his tardiness, as the big business man of our class he has kept our candy sales well above the average for the last two years.

George's friendly kidding and witty remarks make everyone feel at ease when he's around. We all know his splendid bookkeeping ability will be a great asset in his future work.

Football, '35, '36; Candy Manager, '37, '38; YEAR BOOK Staff, '38.



FREDERICK WESLEY PRESSEY

August 1, 1920 Spud Haddonfield, N. J.

ACADEMIC

AMBITION: Research Chemist.
MOTTO: Scientia est Potentia.

As a chemist, "Fred," you ought to go a long way; that is, if you are careful and don't mix up too many unknown things. "Fred" comes out for every sport trying to do his share for old M.-N., and as you all know, he does pretty well.

Football, '35, '36, '37; Basketball, '35, '37, '38; Baseball, '37, '38; Basketball Manager, '36; Play, '36, '37; Operetta, '36, '37, '38; Declamation Contest, '35; Decorating Committee, '38; Orchestra, '35, '36, '37; Bank, '37; Associate Editor of Mar-News, '38; YEAR BOOK Staff, '38.

JOSEPH KITSELMAN REED, JR.

December 2, 1919 Joe West Philadelphia, Pa.

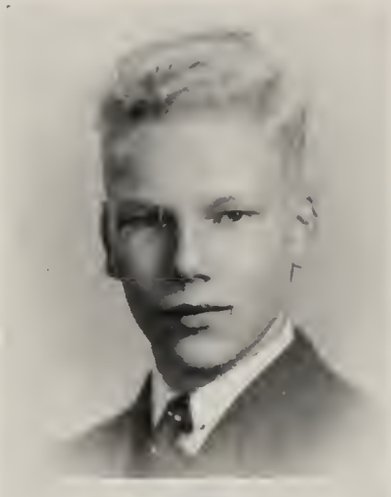
GENERAL

AMBITION: Business Man.
MOTTO: "Let your smile be your umbrella."

As one of the best all-around athletes we give you "Joe" Reed. His fine reputation and the good work he has done for the class will be remembered by every member of the Senior Class.

Class President, '35, '38; President, Homeroom, '37; Football Letterman, '35, '36, '37, Captain, '38; Basketball, '35, '36, '37, Letterman, '38; Baseball, '35, Letterman, '36, '37; Co-captain, '38; Operetta, '35, '36, '37, '38; Chorus, '35, '36, '37; Assistant Candy Manager, '37; Athletic Council, '37, '38, Vice-President, '37; American Legion Award, '34; Declamation Contest Winner, '37; Sports Editor, Mar-News, '37, '38; Business Manager of YEAR BOOK.



EDITH V. SAVIDGE

May 18, 1920 Lover Broomall, Pa.

COMMERCIAL

AMBITION: Private Secretary.
MOTTO: "Strive, for at the gates of labor lies success."

"Lover" has always rated in her studies, for when she looks up to the teachers with her big blue eyes, they can't help but mark her high. In spite of being the baby of the class, she has always worked hard and never fails to lend a helping hand to a friend. She will make an ideal secretary for some lonely young bachelor if her shy, demure manner doesn't win his heart first.

American Legion Award, '34; Perfect Attendance, '30, '36; Chorus, '36; Basketball, '35, '36, '37, '38; Track, '36; Business Manager of Magazine Drive, '38; YEAR BOOK Staff, '38.

RALPH TALBOT

November 28, 1918 Talbot White House, Pa.

GENERAL

AMBITION: Clerk.
MOTTO: "Silence reigns supreme."

Ralph came to us in his junior year from Berwyn. Because of his quiet, shy ways, very few of us know him very well. He has been an asset on the basketball court, on the baseball diamond, and to the class because of his willingness to do anything he can.

Basketball, '37, '38; Baseball Letterman, '37, '38; Perfect Attendance, '36.

BERWIN TAYLOR

December 12, 1920 Pep West Philadelphia, Pa.

GENERAL

AMBITION: Forest Ranger.
MOTTO: "Always watch the fellow behind the fellow in front of you."

Although "Pep" has not participated in athletics at M.-N., he is a good sport and no mean hand with his 12-guage shotgun. He is a hard worker, but always makes room for his fun. His ambition is to be a forest ranger and, due to his knowledge and love of nature, we feel sure he will succeed. Watch those forest fires, "Pep," and just stick, boy, stick!

Basketball, '35, '36, '37; Track, '37, '38; Perfect Attendance, '36; Boys' Chorus, '34, '35.

JESSE THOMAS TROST, JR.

November 9, 1919 Jess Newtown Square, Pa.

GENERAL

AMBITION: Architect.
MOTTO: "Good, better, best, never take a rest till your good is better and your better best."

Well might we say this of Jesse, for he has given us accurate reports of the conditions of class finances at our class meetings. He kept our accounts so perfectly balanced that we knew how near we were to Washington. This short, curly-head boy has a host of friends and is adding new ones to his list. Jesse has been a great help to the Seniors by taking care of the decorations for our dances.

Class Treasurer, '36, '37, '38; Basketball, '38; Baseball, '37; Track, '37; Property Committee for Play, '37; Junior Guard of Honor, '37.

MARGARET WIGGINS

October 18, 1920 Wiggie Philadelphia, Pa.

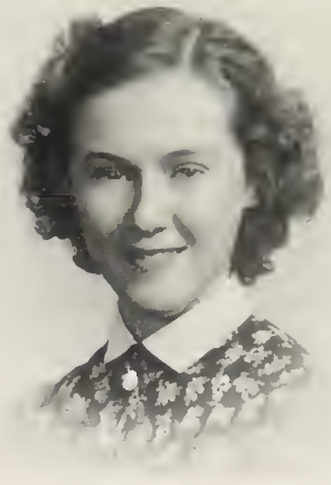
COMMERCIAL

AMBITION: Private Secretary.
MOTTO: "Nothing is good enough that can be bettered."

The statement, "What's one man's loss is another man's gain," is certainly exemplified in Margaret who came to us from Overbrook High. If her shorthand and typing ability and her high scholastic rating are a pre-view of her success in the business world we have nothing to predict but success for her.

Operetta, '35; Track, '34, '35, '37; Chorus, '34, '35; Junior Guard of Honor, '37.



JESSE BUCKMAN WILDS

November 28, 1919 Jess Upper Darby, Pa.

GENERAL

AMBITION: Certified Public Accountant.

MOTTO: "Overcome obstacles."

"Is that all, Madam?" is often heard at the local A and P store as "Jess" tries his super-salesmanship. A willing worker who strives to do his best is our food clerk. "Jess" is quick-witted and will laugh at any good humorous si uation. "Jess," we predict, will be manager of the A and P at an early date (1950) if the girls don't get him first.

Junior Guard of Honor, '37; Publicity Committee, '38.

CLASS WILL

WE, THE Class of 1938, being of sound mind and memory, make and publish our last will and testament this fifteenth day of April, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-eight. In the following manner do we dispose of our possessions:

Claire Brogan's daintiness and charm to Mary Semerjian.

Dot Kondas' recipe for getting a man and holding him to Louise Harvey and Lorraine Stott.

Edith Savidge's sweet retiring ways to Doris Flitcraft and Lillian Wilds.

Margaret Wiggins' ability in shorthand to Betty MacDonald.

Joan Douglas' one-hand basketball shots to Margaret McLaughlin.

Dorothy Matlack's clever technique with the fellows to Eleanor Hunter and Bertha Clark.

Mary Long's punctuality to Priscilla Bowers.

Norma Griffin's imitations of famous actresses to Mary Reburn.

Edith Neal's artistic ability to Ruth Samworth and Rebecca Reed.

Frances Hartin's sunny disposition and ability to take it to Tommy Loomis.

Lyle Hill's office boy position to Bert DiBonaventura and Jimmy Toms. (May the better man get the job!)

Bill Clements' "line" to Edward Grey and Donald McWade.

George Parker's managing ability to the Junior Class.

Joe Reed's manliness and love of fair play to John Battin. (And may he make good use of it.)

Harold Niemeyer's love to Louise Collier.

Elmer Hancock's athletic ability to Roland Wallace and Jimmy Gallagher.

Jesse Wilds' effeminate ways to Vernon Sturm and Bob Broadbelt.

Esther Mills' flirting ability to whoever needs it.

Berwin Taylor's sunny smile to Frank Manton.

Fred Pressey's ability in chemistry to Eleanor Gorman.

Jesse Trost's willing helpfulness to Harry Pierce.

Anna Gustavs' book, "How to be Stout and Like It," to Betty Murray.

Marie Dilworth's gift of gab to Mary Klodarska and Helen Stahlman.

Ralph Talbot's ability to keep his temper to Edmund Broadbelt and Ed Wilson.

And last but not least the Senior Class, as a whole, wish to leave the memory of their reputation to the faculty.

In witness whereof, we have set our hands and seal unto this, our last will and testament, this fifteenth day of April, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-eight.

SEVENTH GRADE

CLASS PROPHECY

TIME: the year 1948. Characters: Two graduates of Marple-Newtown, Class of 1938. The scene is laid on a cold January evening when there is nothing so good as a warm chair by a cozy fireside. The first graduate sits meditating and gazing abstractedly into the blue flames. Enter second graduate: The two sit and exchange news of their old classmates.

The following are choice bits from their conversation:

Mrs. Peoples' twins, Peggy and Charles, Jr., are taking dancing lessons at Anna Gustavs' studio.

Esther Mills has been signed up at the M. G. M. Studio on a long term contract, and being up to her old tricks, has her eye on the boss, Bill Clements.

Frances Hartin, the red-hot blues singer, has taken Broadway by storm.

The little boy who dazzled the others in chemistry class, and is known in the chemistry world as Dr. Pressey, has just invented that new "Come hither soap."

Spending the winter in Miami is our Secretary of the Treasury, Jesse Trost.

Miss Mary Long has just received the Academy Award for this year's best hair style in Hollywood.

That "Advice to the Lovelorn" column, which has become so popular lately, has been found to be written by Margaret Wiggins.

Pep Taylor, our old heart-breaker, has left all the girls and has gone to fight forest fires.

Dorothy Matlack is seriously thinking of becoming more than a secretary to Senator Reed.

The papers have announced that Joan Douglas has been appointed Superintendent of Nurses in a New York hospital; and on the society page, that Miss Dorothy Kondas is entertaining the young debutante, Edith Savidge, at her home on Park Avenue. Turning to the sports page we find that Ralph Talbot has just returned in time to begin spring training with the A's.

Harold Niemeyer is offering his services through the "Want Ad Sections" of the Daily Blab.

Lyle Hill is advertising for a trailer to take him from coast to coast.

Mme. Neal has opened a select dress shop at Fourth and South Streets.

Elmer Hancock is on the debating team at Grumpy College.

After years of hard work Jesse Wilds has been appointed Manager of the A and P Store at Newtown Square.

George Parker has taken over the Fuz Candy Company.

We hear that Marie Dilworth has been hired by the Class of '48 to sell tickets for their Chicken Supper.

Sad to say, but nevertheless true, Claire Brogan was removed to an asylum where Norma Griffin, our screen comic, can no longer harm her with those imitations.

ACTIVITIES

"THE YOUNGEST"

THE YOUNGEST," a comedy in three acts, was presented by the High School, December 3, 1937.

"The Youngest" was a very human and appealing comedy of contemporary American life in which the hero, Richard Winslow, (Robert Doughten) a downtrodden son, came into contact with a charming busybody, Nancy Blake (Esther Mills). The Youngest, with the help of Mrs. Winslow, (DeLoris Brewer) Martha Winslow (Marjorie Burgess), and Alan Martin (Fred Pressey), eventually learned to assert himself and turned upon his oppressors, Oliver Winslow (Edmund Broadbelt), Mark Winslow (James Toms), and Augusta Winslow Martin (Dorothy Matlack), in splendid style.

The cast and the Senior Class extend their gratitude to Mr. Brown, Miss Yeingst, Mr. German, and Mr. Potter for their efforts in making this production a success.

"AN OLD-FASHIONED CHARM"

THE Marple-Newtown High School presented "An Old-Fashioned Charm," a musical comedy in two acts by Juanita Austin and Clarence Kohlmann, on the evenings of April 22 and 23 in the auditorium. Lois Williams (Louise Collier) and Hiram MacDuffle (Bert DiBonaventura) were secretly engaged until Lois' best friend, Millie Foster, (Marjorie Burgess) turned matchmaker and broke the engagement of Lois and Hiram and announced to her gang that Lois and Leonard Darcy (James Toms) were engaged. A Spanish dancer, Carmelita (Eleanor Hunter), fell for his line and so did Bunny Brown (Esther Mills), who lapsed easily into "baby talk." Leonard's servant, Manly (Edmund Broadbelt), added humor to several situations.

Special features included: military, fast tap, big apple, comic, musical comedy, toe and golf dances, and numbers by the quartette and boys' chorus.

Due to the earnest efforts and the excellent ability of Mrs. Weakley and Mr. Brown, the operetta proved to be very successful.

Top Row: M. McLaughlin, K. Kirk, Mr. Worrall, Miss Yeingst, Mr. Harvey, D. Matlack, Secretary; J. Loomis. Front Row: L. Hill, President; J. Toms, Vice-President; J. Dilworth, Treasurer, J. Reed.

ATHLETIC COUNCIL

DUE to a change in the roster the Athletic Council was able to hold but one meeting so far this year. The meetings in the future will be held during the activities period on Tuesday mornings.

This year the A. A. Council has approved awards for Junior High School athletics and has changed the letters to chenille for future years. The style of the letter was also changed.

The following are the members of the council:

Senior Class: Lyle Hill, President; Dorothy Matlack, Secretary; Joseph Reed. Alternates: William Clements, Frances Hartin, Elmer Hancock.

Junior Class: James Toms, Vice-President; Margaret McLaughlin. Alternate: Mary Semerjian.

Sophomore Class: James Dilworth, Treasurer. Alternate: William Culbertson.

Freshman Class: Katherine Kirk. Alternate: Miriam Burgess.

Eighth Grade: Warren Dodson.

Seventh Grade: Jean Loomis. Alternate: Mary Capper.

CHEERLEADERS

THIS year's cheerleading has been so successful that we feel it has become part of our athletics.

Four of the regular cheerleaders were stricken with appendicitis about the middle of January, thus giving room for our faithful alternates, who fell in line and cheered our team to victory several times.

Even though we lose two of our best cheerleaders by graduation, we feel that our squad of cheerleaders will cheer next year's teams to greater success and will produce in us a better quality of sportsmanship.

The cheerleaders this year included Dorothy Kondas, Peggy MacIntyre, Marjorie Burgess. Margaret McLaughlin, Ann Crowley, Miriam Burgess, and James Dilworth. The alternates were Norma Griffin, Esther Mills, and Eleanor Gorman.

Standing: A. Crowley, E. Mills, D. Kondas, E. Gorman, M. MacIntyre, M. McLaughlin, N. Griffin. Kneeling: J. Dilworth, M. Burgess, Captain.

FOOTBALL

Top Row: E. Broadbelt, Manager; W. Patton, H. Herbert, W. Weaver, B. Taylor, W. Hunter. Third Row: C. Semerjian, R. Clements, W. Loescher, W. Stroud, J. Hibbard, R. THIS year, followers of football in M. N. H. S. saw the '37 team pass through a better season than the preceding one. Although we were behind by a few touchdowns several times, the games were quite successful from a moral viewpoint. Under the reliable coaching of Mr. Harvey and Mr. Raffensperger, the boys showed figthing spirit not to be surpassed by any school. Because of the scarcity of able substitutes, the regular boys, tired with fatigue, would see victory snatched from their grasp in the fading minutes of play, by fresh and strong opponents.

Many happy memories still linger in the minds of many how the boys battled a strong and powerful Swarthmore eleven to a scoreless tie for three quarters of the game, but then in the last few minutes, went down gamely to defeat by the score of 7 to 0.

Then again in the following game we battled an even stronger Glen-Nor team up and down the gridiron and emerged being defeated by the score of 6 to 0. M.-N., in her Turkey Day event, completely overpowered a strong Springfield team for three quarters, but was unable to score more than one touchdown due to the poor footing on the muddy field. She was not to be crushed in her final game and held her colors high and concluded the season with a 6-6 tie.

Yes, these are never-to-be forgotten M.-N. football memories with her two victories, two ties, and only four defeats. Truly it was the best team in the small school's history. We are looking forward to another successful season with Ed Wilson as captain of the team.

BOYS' BASKETBALL

THIS season the M.-N. boys, under the guidance of Coach Harvey, had one of the best teams in years. During the first month eight victories were marked down, the greatest being the splendid 14-12 victory over Upper Darby.

Illness separated the boys during February, temporarily stopping their winning streak.

Hill, Hancock, Reed, Clements, DiBonaventura, and Wilson receive their letters this year. Wilson and Neff subbed with the aid of Stnrm, Rich, Talbot and Pressey.

Lyle Hill, Captain, and Elmer Hancock placed in scoring honors, second and third respectively, in Section Four of the Suburban League. Hill was chosen center on the League's first team with Hancock as guard on the second team.

Hill, Hancock, and Reed will be lost by graduation.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

DESPITE a few handicaps at the beginning of the season, the girls' basketball team, captained by Joan Douglas, had a very successful year.

Those fighting for positions on the first team were: forwards, Douglas, Wenger, Wilds, Rambo, and McLaughlin; guards, Kondas, Jones, Wallace, and Burgess.

The girls receiving letters this year will be Douglas, Kondas, Wenger, Jones, Wilds, and their capable manager, Betty Murray, all of whom will remain for next year's squad except Douglas and Kondas who will be lost by graduation.

Next year's team looks promising and will be captained by our most able forward, Mary Wenger.

BOYS' BASEBALL

MOVING into the early spring days, the Orange and Black Team is faced with a difficult schedule with many teams including those in Suburban Four League.

Marple-Newtown will show a heavy hitting nine, and expects to go places if the inexperienced pitchers develop. In the hurling department are B. Brown, F. Talbot, and H. Rich. Receiving will be either Sturm or Wilson. The infield will consist of R. Talbot, J. Reed, H. Rich, F. Talbot, with the outer garden including E. Hancock, L. Hill, E. Wilson, or W. Clements.

Hancock, Hill, and Reed, the heavy hitters, along with Clements and Talbot will say farewell to athletics after the close of the season.

Flash—The M.-N. boys defeated Schwenksville, 5-3, and followed up with a 3-1 victory over Clifton Heights.

FOOTBALL LETTERMEN

(Coach's opinion)

LYLE HILL, our big rangy regular back for two years, had excellent talent at kicking and passing.

WILLIAM O'NEILL, fast developing into one of Marple-Newtown's best all-time guards, is excellent at piling up power plays through the line.

WILLIAM CLEMENTS, very accurate as a center, was extraordinary when it came to knocking down visitors' passes.

UMBERTO DiBONAVENTURA played steadily throughout the entire season. Cooperation was the keynote to Bert's success.

ELMER HANCOCK, who played backfield two years and line one, could always find a hole in the opponent's line for needed yardage.

BYRON BROWN, playing back, was particularly speedy for a big man. There will be plenty to be written later about "Brownie."

FOOTBALL

JOSEPH REED, as Captain, was the only football four-letterman on the team. He was versatile and fast with uncanny ability at "sifting" through interference.

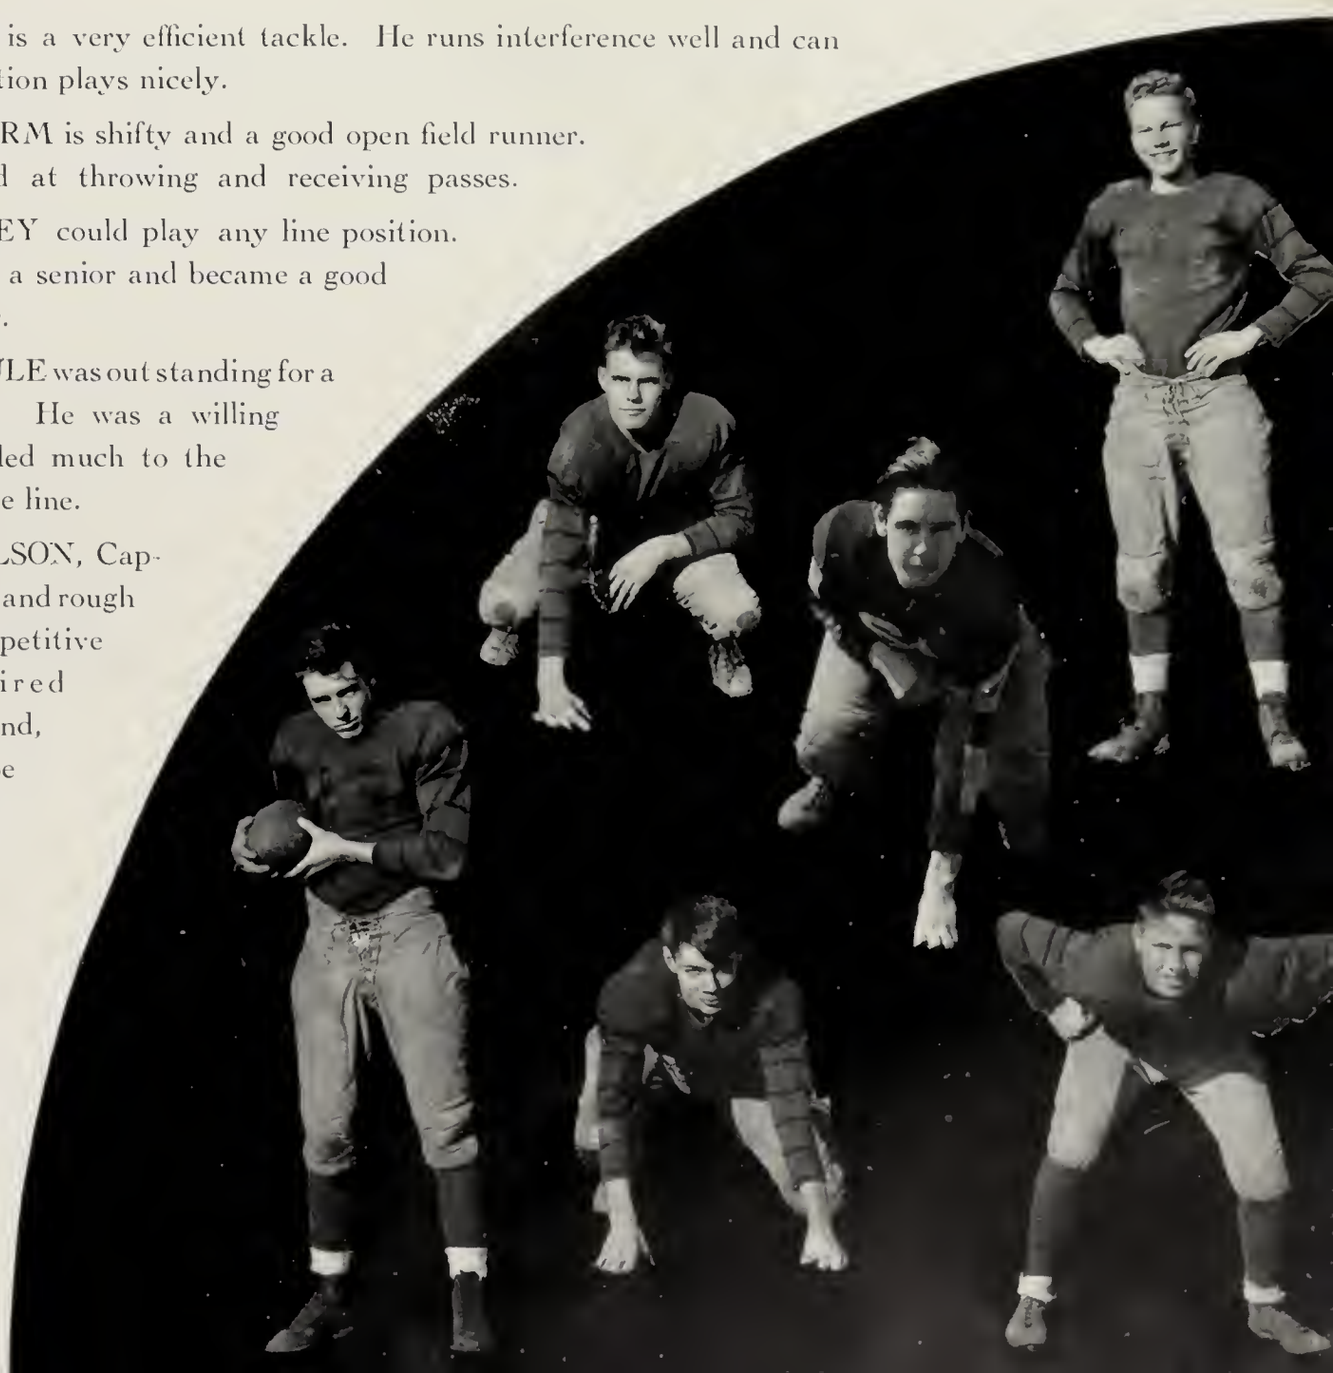
DAVID NEFF is a very efficient tackle. He runs interference well and can diagnose opposition plays nicely.

VERNON STURM is shifty and a good open field runner. He is also good at throwing and receiving passes.

FRED PRESSEY could play any line position. He improved as a senior and became a good defensive player.

ROBERT MAULE was out standing for a first-year man. He was a willing worker and added much to the team play of the line.

EDWARD WILSON, Captain-elect, is fast and rough with real competitive spirit. He paired with Reed at end, but he may be shifted to back field next year.



BOYS' BASKETBALL LETTERMEN

(Coach's opinion)

UMBERTO DI BONAVENTURA, a steady all-around player, made a fine showing for his first year on the varsity team.

WILLIAM CLEMENTS, an excellent floor man and team player, could score many points but played defensively most of the time.

EDWARD WILSON jumped into varsity line-up with very little experience on Javees. He was always good for a few field goals.

JOSEPH REED played well at the beginning of the season, but became ill in mid-season. Joe was always in there fighting.

ELMER HANCOCK was our heavy scoring guard with particular ability at shooting from difficult angles. We hope to hear more from Elmer at college.

LYLE HILL, as Captain, was brilliant on both defense and offense. Where will Coach Harvey ever find another Hill?

GIRLS' BASKETBALL LETTERMEN

(Coach's opinion)

DOROTHY KONDAS, through speed and quick thinking, broke up many well-organized plays and carefully aimed shots.

As our star forward, MARY WENGER displayed much grace on the floor, and her beautifully arched shots brought us many victories.

ALICE WILDS, one of this year's "finds," successfully played in the position of guard and forward.

LINDA JONES, although a small guard, ran her opponents ragged on the floor. Her eyes, always alert, never lost sight of the ball.

JOAN DOUGLAS, as our dependable captain, spurred her team on to action, and by many of her well-placed one-hand shots, proved her own mettle.

SPORT SNAPS

1. Hold everything!
2. Get off!
3. "Oops."
4. Don't let it scare you; it's only Hill.
5. '37 Captain.
6. Reach for this.
7. You're going the wrong way.
8. Still kicking.
9. Captain.
10. Let's give a cheer.
11. Don't mix love and basketball.
12. New way of playing basketball.
13. Captain.
14. "Stand 'em on their heads."
15. Next year's Captain.
16. Doesn't this remind you of a trip to the zoo?
17. I've got it.
18. Send me a good one.
19. I can't see it.
20. Where's the ball?
21. Co-Captains.
22. Not so hard.
23. Right in the old mitt!
24. Now do it this way.
25. Give me a chance.
26. Hold up your head, fella.
27. First and ten.
28. Why the frowns?
29. Ready for action.
30. Last stand.
31. Watch the Bertie.

Esther—"Yes, indeed. He insists that we use one chair to keep from wearing the furniture and always turns off the light to save electricity."

Mrs. Weakly—"I'm afraid you don't love me as much as you used to. You always let me get up and light the fire now."

Mr. Weakly—"Nonsense, dear. Your getting up to light the fire makes me love you all the more."

Father—"When I was a little boy, I always ate the crusts."

Norma—"Did you like them?"

Father—"Of course I did."

Norma—"Then you can have mine."

A backwood mountaineer found a mirror which a tourist had lost. "Well, if it ain't my old dad," he said as he looked into it. "I never knew he had his picture took." He took the mirror home and hid it in the attic. His wife saw him go up there and when he went to sleep she went up and searched until she found the mirror.

"Humph!" she snorted, looking into it, "so that's the old hag he's been chasing."

Edith—"Are you making any progress in getting acquainted with those fashionable people who have moved in next door?"

Margaret—"Their cat invited our cat over to a musical last night."

Mr. Mast—"When the kettle boils why does steam come out the spout?"

Peggy—"So mother can open Daddy's letters before he comes home."

A reporter for the local newspaper was interviewing a visiting celebrity. "Do you believe in clubs for women?" he asked.

"Um-yes," replied the dignitarian, "but only if kindness fails."

Mr. Reed was paying a visit to his son at college and thought they should have their photograph taken together.

The photographer suggested that Joe should stand with his hand on his father's shoulder. Mr. Reed objected. "It would look more lifelike," he said coldly, "if he stood with his hand in my pocket."

Peggy—"How would you treat a stupid boy who admired you?"

Marie—"I never consider a man stupid who admires me."

Doctor—"You had a pretty close call. It's only your constitution that pulled you through."

Elmer—"Well, Doctor, remember that when you make out your bill."
